Admission

Students will be admitted to the Summer term on the same basis as during the regular semester if they plan to attend King University in the fall. Students from other colleges will be admitted with a letter of approval from their Registrar. International students from other colleges may be tested for English language proficiency to determine readiness to take courses in the regular academic program.

Cost

The tuition charge for the Summer term is $125 per semester hour for each on-campus course. At the time of registration, a $25 deposit is required for the term. Other fees and charges are outlined in the Financial Information section of the Academic Catalogue. Faculty contracts will be issued prior to the beginning of the Summer term.

Dorm Rooms

The University will provide a room for Term A only at the rate of $340.00. A damage deposit of $25 must be paid to the Business Office before check-in. This deposit will be refunded by check after check-out if room and common living areas are in satisfactory condition.

Withdrawal & Last Day to Add

The table below provides information on the refund policy for Summer term. For term long courses, an automatic Withdrawal may be obtained the first three weeks of the session; automatic Failure for the fifth week.

For the traditional summer terms, the last day to add a course will be the third day of the term. Students wishing to add a course after this date must have the approval of their advisor, the instructor of the course, and the Academic Dean.
