

 FALL
2024
SCHEDULE

A SENSE OF Wonder

AUGUST 14

Paul Wadell, Ph.D.

Theologian and Author

7:30 a.m. - Seeking God Together in Christ - Friendship in the Christian Life
King University Dining Hall,
Bristol, Tenn.

AUGUST 28

Andy Tooley, Ph.D.

24th President of King University

9:15 a.m. - Opening Convocation
King University Memorial Chapel,
Bristol, Tenn.

SEPTEMBER 9

Elissa Yukiko Weichbrodt, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Art and Art History,
Norris and Billie Little Endowed Scholar,
Covenant College

9:15 a.m. - Very Good: On Making and Being Made
King University Memorial Chapel, Bristol, Tenn.

7 p.m. - Redeeming Vision: Looking at and Learning from Art
Central Presbyterian Church, Bristol, Va.

OCTOBER 14

Katherine Paterson '54

Library of Congress Living Legend

9:15 a.m. - Speaking of Wonder:

A Conversation with Kimberly Brubaker Bradley

King University Memorial Chapel, Bristol, Tenn.

7 p.m. - A Sense of Wonder

Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Bristol, Va.

NOVEMBER 4

Daniel Silliman, Ph.D.

News Editor, Christianity Today

9:15 a.m. - God Loves Richard Nixon:

History and the Work of Empathy

King University Memorial Chapel, Bristol, Tenn.

7 p.m. - When Richard Nixon Haunts Your Dreams:

A Disgraced President and the Politics of Forgiveness

Central Presbyterian Church, Bristol, Va.

NOVEMBER 18

Derek Schuurman, Ph.D.

Professor of Computer Science, Calvin University

9:15 a.m. - AI and the Biblical Story:

Thoughts from a Christian Computer Scientist

King University Memorial Chapel, Bristol, Tenn.

7 p.m. - Personhood and the Perception of Truth in the Age of AI

First Presbyterian Church, Bristol, Tenn.

NetVUE

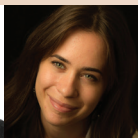

REGIONAL GATHERING

OCTOBER
23-25
2024

Bristol, Tenn.

Storytelling & Vocation

An array of storytellers, including: Kiran Singh Sirah, Hannah Rappleye, Chef T, and Ty Warren